Two Virginia applications were filed at the Treasury Department to-day. Frank Harper, of Alexandria, wants to be a special agent and N. W. Customs for the Florida District: S. T.
Nichelson, of Raleigh, Chief of Division of the Sixth Auditor's Office.

In the interview of Mr. Harry M. Smythe, of Tazewell county, published in vesterday's Disparent it should also have been stated that the editor of the Hedriph considered Washington as one of the Southwest counties that would be for Representative O'Ferrall for Governor, along with Wythe, Lee, and Smyth counties. Mr. Smythe particularly mentioned Washington county, and the omission was unintentionally made by the writer. AN OMISSION.

list of arrivals. Next week there will no doubt be more lite at the nation's capital.

Another successful armor-plate trial took place to-day at the Indian Head proving-ground, near Washington. It was the acceptance test of the 8-inch armor for the New York, Monterey, and Texas. While the contractors failed to secure a premium as a result of the test the plate filled the terms of the contract, and about 300 tons of armor for the vessels named will be accepted. One of the three shots fired succeeded in passing through the plate and backing, but no cracks were developed, and the plate was pronounced a very good one. Carnegie, Phipps & Co. The court officials expressed surprise to day when neither Captain Mushbach nor Mr. Miller appeared. As a consequence the grand jury has not acted upon policy cases to-day.

A colored Methodist church in the county, located on the Great-Bridge road not far from Berkley, caught fice last night and was entirely destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated and was probably incendiary. The property was not insured.

At an early hour yesterday morning the residence of Commodore Marshall Parks, on Freemason and Dunmore streets, caught fire in the basement, and before being extinguished the premises were damaged to the extent of about five hundred dollars. The loss was covered by insurance.

The seventy-fourth anniversary of Odd-Fellowship was celebrated in this city last night by special services in Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. W. H. Mc-Allister delivered a beautiful address on the workings of the Odd-Fellows' order and the choir of the church rendered special music for the occasion. The church was crowded from door to chancel. Screpta and Potomac lodges and Menley Encampent of Odd-Fellows attended in a body, and a host of the friends of the Odd-Fellows were also present.

The congregation of the Methodist Protestant church are very much pleased with their new pastor, the Rev. Frank T. Benson, who comes here from Patterson, N. J., to succeed the Rev. Mr. Poisal. VERY ENTHUSIASTIC.

Aged 70 Years—Mrs. Perkins Dead.
[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
Comony, Va., May 1.—Bishop Whittle's annual visitation to King George last week was the leading topic. His congregations were small, owing to the very inclement weather. Twenty candidates for church membership were confirmed at St. John's and St. Paul's churches on Wednesday and Thursday. The Bishop was very feeble and nervous and did not attempt to preach. Evangelist Meade accompanied him and did the pulpit work whenever the weather permitted the people to attend the services. Among those confirmed at St. John's church (at King George Courthouse) was Major Henry Syrd Lewis, about 70 years old, and one of the most prominent men of this section.

ILLNESS.

Deputy-Sheriff James S. Davis, of King George, is critically ill with bilious pneumonis, and Constable H. E. Radeliffe, of King George Courthouse, is dangerously ill with acute inflammatory rheumatism.

Captain G. W. Grigsby, of this place, visited Richmond last week in the interest of his candidacy for the superintendency of the public schools.

Mrs. Colonel Henry C. Perkins, near Edge Hill, died very suddenly of neart, iis. ease several nights ago. She retired to bed at 10 o'clock as well as usual and in fine spirits. Shortly afterward Colonel Perkins heard his wife make a peculiar struggle, and immediately lighting a lamptound her entirely lifeless. The funeral was largely attended by King Georgians, Staffordians, and relatives from Washington, D. C.

A day or two ago I met a New York capitalist, a former Richmond man, who was completely carried away by a visit to the ship-yard here. "I was amazed," he said; "Newport News is going to be the greatest ship-building point in the country."

And this suggests another important piece of information. For some time past it has been rumored that in future the Old Dominion Company would build its ships here. The Newport News Sun now announces that it is practically settled that the ship-yard here is to get the contract for two Old Dominion ships of large capacity and of improved type.

The new Chesapeake and Ohio steamer which is to ply between here and Norfolk is to be built at the Newport News yard.

So the Norfolk purchase is a big thing for Newport News. It will, of course, help Norfolk, but give a tremendous impulse to the development of this place. When this fact is understood there will, of course, be another upward tendency in building lots and the stocks of the companies owning such lots. The fact is, I am not so certain that the question I have mentioned was not raised by shrewd speculators who wished to push down values so as to reap a harvest when the results of the Norfolk purchase began to be realized. If so, they reckoned without their hosts. Purchasers here are thoroughly satisfied, and they have reason to be.

Twenty-four to 40,000 copies per hour he capacity of the new printing-press being constructed for the use of The Rich-MOND DISPATCH. This new purchase has been nade necessary by the great increase of irculation of this most estimable paper. The Record notes its prosperity with reat deal of pleasure, as it has always ooked upon it as a paper of great abilit and one of the best dailies in the South. Greensboro' (N. C.) Record.

NEWPORT NEWS, May 1.—The purchase of valuable property at Norfolk for terminal facilities by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has raised the question. What will be the effect on Newport News? I asked this question of a high Chesapeake and Ohio official, no less person, indeed, tian the vice-president.

"What will be the effect upon Newport News?" he repeated. "Why, help it, of course. Anything that helps this bay will help Newport News. There is large business at Norfolk for the Chesapeake and Ohio, and anything that builds up the road builds up the company's great terminus. Let me tell you. After we had made the purchase in Norfolk and were coming over on the boat President Ingalls said to the Chesapeake and Ohio officials around him: 'I tell you, we are on the right side of this bay,' meaning Newport News.

"It is preposterous to think that the Chesapeake and Ohio people would do anything to hurt Newport News. It is bound to be a tremendous city. We are enthusiastic about it and believe in it from the crown of our heads to the soles of our feet. Whatever else occurs, Newport News will be the great shipping-port of the Atlantic coast."
